PART 'A'

The IQAC established in our college in June 2006 and has chalked out the following plans for the academic year 2006-07. So as to realize the goals of quality enhancement and sustenance. The following were the plans to be under taken.

1. Planned to give computer training to non-teaching staff.
2. To conduct National level seminar on the impact of closure of industries.
3. Planned to conduct special coaching classes for SC/ST, Minority Students in different subjects.
4. Planned to under take more community services through NSS units (A & B) of our college.
5. Planned to encourage the teachers to adopt few students for their welfare.
6. Planned to tap alumni and parent support for the betterment of students.
7. Planned to conduct a two-day workshop on "Communication Skills in English".

OUTCOME

Situated in small semi urban industrial town, our college has thrived and flourished over the years, empowering students from all stratas of life, particularly from sociol-economically marginalised groups through education. The institution displays sensitivity to the sociol-economic changes in its surroundings. Accordingly the institution practices relevant welfare schemes in order to respond to community needs.

The department of Economics took initiative to conduct a "National Seminar" on " the impact of closure of Industries in Gulbarga District, particularly in Shahabad," with its focus on socio, economic and psychological impact after the closure of industries in Gulbarga District Being the first Endeavour of its sort in this region, it attracted the attention of many social thinkers, social workers and activists of this region who involved themselves in the mission of the college for the welfare of the large groups of workers for whom industrial units become the source of their livelihood. The seminar was conducted on 15th and 16th march 2007, at the college premise.

The themes undertaken for discussion in the seminar were,

- 1) Industries and economic development
- 2) Sick industries- problems and solutions
- 3) Small scale industries and technological development
- 4) Changing face of trade unions in global economy
- 5) Role of cement industries
- 6) Sugar industries in Gulbarga district- problems and prospects
- 7) Agro-based industries and district economic development.

The institution has always an agenda in which students occupy a central position and all others are geared towards student satisfaction focusing on nurturing creative minds to meet the global challenges. The college has equipped itself with state of the art technological facilities to make teaching more innovative and effective. The college now possesses a...

Dr.B.P.Bulla of Department of Economics shouldered the responsibility of convenor for the seminar. The National Seminar was inaugurated by prof. K.V prabhakar, former Dean, faculty of commerce and management Gulbarga University Gulbarga and Senior professor, M.P. Birla Institute of Management, Bangalore Prof. K. NageshwarRao, Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences, S.K. University Anantpur, Andhra Pradesh and Vice President, Indian Economic Association, gave keynote address.

The teachers were motivated to adopt a few students for their welfare. This was a new step in bridging the gap between the teacher and the student and making learning process an enjoyable and pleasant task. Some projects were adopted by teachers and were evaluated. Monetary help along with academic supervision...

Prof. R.V Dadi Bhavi, Department of Economics, Karnataka University Dharwad gave the Valedictory address and the chief guest Prof B.P Hugar, Director, CDC & Joint Director, Collegiate Education Gulbarga, addressed the gathering.

Lively discussions took place during the technical session resulting into useful conclusions for remedial strategies in different situations. support for the betterment of students.

As per the need of the hour, computer training is provided to non-teaching staff of the college for the smooth conduct of office affairs. The training has enhanced the efficiency of work in the office. This is possible because of sincere efforts and enthusiasm of heads, such as

Sd. S.K.Dawood, Head, Department of Sports & Games. Prof. B.B Sarda, NSS Advisor, Prof. S.R Somayaji, Cultural Advisor.

The institution has always an agenda in which students occupy a central position and all others are geared towards student satisfaction focusing on nurturing creative minds to meet the global challenges, the college has equipped itself with state of the art technological gazettes. To make teaching more innovative and effective, the college now possesses L.C.D.

To enable students to strengthen their basic knowledge for good living, special coaching classes for SC/ST, minority students are being conducted in different subjects.

The teachers were motivated to adopt a few students for their welfare. This was a new step in bridging the gap between the teacher and the taught and also making learning process an enjoyable and pleasant task. Some poor students were adopted by teachers and were extended monetary help along with academic supervision.

The institution has also tapped the Alumni sources and also parental support for the betterment of students.

Our college is not only ahead in sports & games but also in other activities such as NSS activities, Cultural activities etc. This is possible because of sincere efforts and enthusiasm of heads, such as Sri. S.K.Dawood, Head, Department of Sports & Games. Prof. B.B Sardgi NSS Advisor, Prof. S.B Somayaji, Cultural Advisor.
